

Nathanael Rodriguez

Head Chef

Chef Nathanael has over 23 years of culinary experience. For 9 years he was at The Strathallan Hotel specializing in fine dining at their Sabrina's Restaurant, where he trained and worked his way to the top. After The Strathallan, he went on to become Sous Chef and later Head Chef for Portico South, a high end Italian bistro. He was then hired by Steamboat Landing, a high volume casual steak and seafood restaurant where he also catered banquets and weddings for 5 years. In 2006, Nathanael found his second home when Lake Shore Country Club welcomed him as their Head Chef.
